Application for a Rehabilitation Employment Permit

Any person who has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude and who desires to work at a specific licensed premises must apply for a Rehabilitation Employment Permit if the required five year waiting period to apply for a Removal of a Criminal Disqualification has not passed. The application for a Rehabilitation Employment Permit may take a period of time for the NJABC to process as it will involve an investigation into your background. The time frame will vary depending on the complexity of each individual case. If you are requesting employment as soon as possible, be sure to indicate YES to question 6 - "Does Applicant Request a Temporary Work Letter?" You must also include a completed "Employment Verification Letter" (EVL) with your application.

Petition for Removal of a Criminal Disqualification

Any person convicted of a crime of moral turpitude must wait five (5) years from the date of conviction or the release from incarceration, whichever date is later, before a petition for the Removal of a Criminal Disqualification can be filed. Any involvement in the alcoholic beverage industry which was not authorized by a Rehabilitation Employment Permit or Temporary Work Letter (TWL) is added to the five year time period and could further result in a determination that the applicant has not met the burden of establishing that the petitioner has behaved in a law abiding manner during the previous five year time period. The application for a Removal of a Criminal Disqualification may take a period of time for the NJABC to process as it will involve an investigation into your background. The time frame will vary depending on the complexity of each individual case. If you are requesting employment as soon as possible, be sure to indicate YES to question 6 - "Does Applicant Request a Temporary Work Letter?" You must also include a completed "Employment Verification Letter" (EVL) with your application.

Instructions for Filing Either a Disqualification and or Rehabilitation with the NJABC

Prior approval by this Division of a Rehabilitation Employment Permit or a TWL is required before the applicant may be employed at a licensed business. Submission of either a petition or application requires all of the following:

- (1) A completed and notarized petition or application form;
- (2) Two (2) current full-face passport type photos;
- (3) A non-refundable fee of $125.00 is required for the submission of either application. Payment may be made by money order or certified check payable to "NJ Div. of ABC". (Please do not send cash through the mail);

Information on all municipal court disorderly person offenses must be included, even it they resulted in a not guilty or dismissal. (Failure to fully disclose all arrest information may result in the denial of any temporary employment authorization, as well as, the applied for permit or disqualification removal.)

Additional Information Required for a Temporary Work Letter (TWL)

If the applicant wishes to work at a licensed business while the application is being investigated by the NJABC, a Temporary Work Letter (TWL) must first be obtained by the applicant. To request a TWL, the applicant must submit all of the above required documents, as well as the following:

- (1) An Employment Verification Letter (EVL) completed and signed by the prospective employer (the licensee). Absent a properly completed EVL, a TWL will not be considered.
- (2) The Division must receive the results of the fingerprint check before a TWL will be issued.

A preliminary review of all the required documents will be made and a determination to grant or deny the TWL will be rendered. Any employment, at any NJABC licensed business, is prohibited without written authorization from this Division.

If the applicant is in an alternative incarceration program, such as the "home arrest" program or electronic bracelet monitoring, the applicant generally is not eligible for a Temporary Work Letter. The Division will consider each request, however, on a case-by-case basis. Such applicants must:
